

Six Mile Community

Voices Project

Six Mile Regional Library District is looking for local youth ages 10-14 to be involved in film making workshops beginning February 10, 2018.

You will:

- Learn how to use a video camera, software, and other equipment
- Interview local veterans
- Create a short film about life in our community with your team

Interested?

Call Kate

452-6238 ext. 755 or email

katekite@smrld.org

Funding for this grant was awarded by the Illinois State Library, a Department of the Office of Secretary of State, using funds provided by the U.S. Institute of Museum and Library Services, under the provisions of the Library Services and Technology Act (LSTA).